

BY TELEGRAPH

TELESCOPED.

The Result to an Emigrant

Train of a Brinkman's

Neglect.

A Loaded Passenger Coach Tossed

Fifty Feet and Smashed

to Pieces.

No Living Badly Shaken Up, and

Many of Them Badly Wounded

—None Killed.

St. Paul, Minn., March 21.—At 12:25

o'clock, Saturday, the west-bound train,

Jerry Conklin, conductor, on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad, telegraphed a special west-bound freight and passenger train standing on the main track at Fort Wing, just opposite the steamboat freight-shed. The special freight train consisted of about twenty freight cars, with stock and household goods, and two coaches filled with emigrants from Danbury County, Ontario, bound for Winnipeg, and a ca-gaboose. The caboose was entirely demolished and thrown from the track, and the rear end of the freight coach, containing some fifty emigrants, was dashed against the freight shed, and some fifty feet distant, thrown upon its side and completely smashed. The pilot and bullhead of the engine of the passenger train were smashed to pieces, but the locomotive remained right side up. The engineer of the train received but slight injuries. George W. Mason, Assistant

Superintendent of the River Division, was on the passenger train and took charge of the work of clearing the track.

The injured, only two of whom are considered in a dangerous condition, were immediately taken to the offices of physicians, where they received every attention that could be rendered. The names of the injured, all of whom had previously lived at Middlebrook, Ont., are as follows:

Alexander Tigner, architect.

Mrs. Alexander Tigner, serious scalp wound and internal injuries.

Roma Payne, face wound.

Minnie Payne, cut over eyes.

Martha Payne, deep scalp wound.

William Kitchin, deep scalp wound.

Mr. Wm. Kitchin, severe cut in head.

Maggie Kitchin, slight face wound.

At Fort Wing, where Mr. Kitchin's train chugged, concussion of the train, instantly.

John Baker, sprained ankle and cut in the head.

W. E. McElhin, cut in the face and head.

There were some others slightly hurt.

The wreck was cleared in about two and a half hours, in time for the fast mail to pass.

Jerry Conklin, conductor of No. 3,

the regular passenger train, died in St.

Paul at 12:30 p. m. on his schedule time. After the wreck took place the train moved on, and in a few moments was moving at the rate of about twenty miles an hour. Just at the edge of the town, and before reaching Ladysburg kill, the train was struck by a small engine, which struck a short curve, resulting in the engine and the passenger train being thrown into the ditch, and the engine, which was a small one, was thrown into the ditch, and the passenger train was thrown into the ditch, and the passenger train was thrown into the ditch, and the passenger train was thrown into the ditch, and the passenger train was thrown into the ditch, and the passenger train was

thrown into the ditch, and the passenger train was thrown into the ditch, and the passenger train was

thrown into the ditch, and the passenger train was thrown into the ditch, and the passenger train was

thrown into the ditch, and the passenger train was thrown into the

THE ENTOMBED MINERS.

The Feeling at Pocatonga, Va.,

Among the Living Over the Imprisoned Dead.

Possibility That It May Be Practicable

to Reopen the Entrances to the Mine To-Morrow.

The Belle of the Village Will Marry the

Man Who Recovers the Body of Her Father.

Pocatonga, Va., March 21.—The excitement which existed Friday night, when the indignation meeting was held to endeavor to compel the owners of the exploded mine to reopen the same and recover the bodies of the 125 entombed miners, has subsided in a measure, and it is likely no desperate means will be employed by the residents to force a compliance with their wishes.

As was announced the Rev. Charles Ashley, pastor of Union Church, will deliver an address to-day upon the condition of affairs, the little chapel was thronged with relatives and friends of the unfortunate miners. Owing to the size of the crowd fully 500 people, who were unable to listen to the discourse through the windows.

THE TARIFF.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—There is a deal of talk and speculation concerning the probable action of to-morrow's

Democratic caucus, but it is notable that nearly all of it is indulged by the Protectionists. The Revenue reformers are very quiet about the matter. Their programme is made out. It is shown, they will not in any circumstances agree to any measure that they propose to go forward with the consideration of the Morrison bill as the basis of tariff legislation, and they believe should be passed by the responsible majority of the House. They will listen respectfully to those who do not favor legislation and to those who do favor legislation, but also favor modifications of the Morrison bill. The pro-tectionists, however, will not submit propositions looking to non-action, but all such propositions will be rejected. It is not the intention of the revenue reformers to recover the bodies of the miners, nor is it their intention to increase the tariff. They will ask simply that the essential features of the bill be made the basis of party action on the tariff. The protectionists are endeavoring to make the Morrison bill a party question, and have gone so far as to telegraph some of the Democratic members of the Ohio

Legislature to secure, if possible, a joint resolution expressing disapproval of the Morrison bill.

CONSIDERATION.

Representative Morgan of Missouri said Saturday: "I believe that the caucus will adopt substantially the Morrison bill. I believe that the protectionists can't support that. They can't support anything short of a high protective measure, and that's all.

They will not support the Morrison bill as a concession to you. I tell you we will not abandon it."

"I think you will pass it."

"I think you will pass it."

"I think you will pass it."

"I think you will pass it."

"I think you will pass it."

"I think you will pass it."

"I think you will pass it."

"I think you will pass it."

"I think you will pass it."

"I think you will pass it."

"I think you will pass it."

"I think you will pass it."

"I think you will pass it."

"I think you will pass it."

"I think you will pass it."

"I think you will pass it."

"I think you will pass it."

"I think you will pass it."

"I think you will pass it."

THE TOMBED MINERS.

The Feeling at Pocatonga, Va.,

Among the Living Over the

Imprisoned Dead.

Possibility That It May Be Practicable

to Reopen the Entrances to the Mine To-Morrow.

The Belle of the Village Will Marry the

Man Who Recovers the Body

We have received our new Spring Patterns in

JEWELRY!

Many very handsome things in

Bracelets,
Hoop Ear Rings,
Rings, Sets, &c.

We can show you many beautiful things not to be had elsewhere except in the larger cities, and at prices lower than you can get them there.
Particularly is this the case in

Diamonds, Watches

AND
Fancy Artistic Pieces,
FOR PRESENTATIONS.

OTTO E. CURTIS & CO.

Leading Jewelers,
March 3--d&wt

Order Your Bread

PIES AND CAKES, OF BREWERS.

Special attention paid to fine ORNAMENTED WEDDING CAKES.

BREWER, the BAKER,

211 North Main-St., Decatur, Ill.
Jan. 17, 1881 d&wt

FURNACES! FURNACES!

We have employed a practical furnace man from Chicago, and taken the Agency for the CELEBRATED

"BOYNTON"
FURNACE,

which is acknowledged to be the BEST IN THE MARKET.

Parties thinking of building will do well to get our figures on a FIRST CLASS WARRANTED
FURNACE, or, if your OLD
ONE NEEDS OVERHAULING, come and have it done right by a man who knows how.

We are also Agents for the old reliable

BALTIMORE HEATER

A FULL LINE OF
HARDWARE, MANTELS, GRATES, &c.

Good Goods at Bottom Figures.

Ferguson & Dillehunt,

125 North Water Street
Feb. 1, 1881 d&wt

WE ARE OFFERING

Special and Extraordinary Bargains

New and Beautiful Embroideries, Laces, White Goods, Dress Goods, Prints, Gingham, Percales, &c., &c.

MILLINERY DEPARTMENT full of New and Choice Goods for early Spring trade. Best Assortment and Lowest Prices characterize this establishment.

Inspection solicited.

S. G. HATCH & BRO.,
143 East Main St. Powers' Block,
Feb. 5--d&wt

The Daily Republican.

The above cut represents the celebrated "Novelty" Baby Carriage, for sale ONLY by E. D. BARTHOLOMEW & CO.
Feb. 20--d&wt

MUNDAY EVENING, MARCH 24, 1881

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

URTIS further notice our price on 1847
Rogers Bros. knives is $2.50 a dozen, or $1.25 a set. E. D. BARTHOLOMEW & CO.
City election a week from to-morrow.
DANVILLE has 36 saloons; Decatur 26.
Dry stove wood at McClelland's 11247
Boys' annual waste at Stine's.

Funeral of the late Mrs. Mollie A. Brown, wife of Mr. Charles H. Brown, who died in Chicago on Thursday morning in the 34th year of her age, took place from the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening. The sad services were very largely attended, it being impossible for any except the relatives who arrived at the church from the residence in carriages to find seating accommodation, and 20 or more people had to remain seated in the carriages during the ceremony. The church about the altar was tastefully adorned with rich floral offerings in profusion, the gift of friends of the deceased. They embraced calla lilies and ferns, and numerous hot-house flowers in vases, which were draped in mourning; also a large cross made of lilies and hyacinths; a large inverted anchor of white flowers; a floral spray of immense size; a large, white star of hope resting on a pedestal; and a mammoth basket of white flowers. Deceased was a consistent member of the church, and a touching tribute to her life and character was delivered by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Prentiss. Appropriate music for the sad occasion was furnished by the choir which numbered 12 voices. The remains were interred in Greenwood cemetery in the presence of a great throng of sympathizing friends of the bereaved young husband and motherless children. The pall-bearers were Messrs. R. P. Lytle, O. Z. Groome, O. B. Gorin, Albert Barnes, J. A. Mullis, R. S. Bolton, K. Harwood and O. E. Curtis.

Somehow Mixed.
Thomas Lee, who is a candidate for alderman in the fifth ward, says he is going to see fair play if it costs him the use of his other foot. He doesn't know why that special meeting was held Friday night except in the interest of John Gogarty. Mr. Lee was on hand in person that night, and he claims the honor of having thwarted the purpose of the gathering, which he insists was to nominate Gogarty. The meeting adjourned to meet again Tuesday evening of this week, and he will endeavor to be on hand again to note the drift of the wind and lift up his voice in opposition to any irregular action. Tom says he is on the track to stay and hopes to go into the council with a big vote and flying colors.

More Tax Reports.
Oakley township--J. B. Lichtenberger collector. Amount assessed, $5,553.77; collected, $2,201.51; delinquent, $2,151.22.
Pleasant View--P. M. Scherling collector. Amount assessed, $10,573.80; collected, $7,742.36; delinquent, $2,831.44.
Long Creek--W. M. Davis collector. Amount assessed, $9,107.75; collected, $6,701.21; delinquent, $2,406.54.

SUNDAY afternoon pedestrians were somewhat amused on noticing a man sound asleep and snoring on the stone steps leading to the south entrance to the First M. E. church. He was aroused by Marshall Mason, who found that he was under the influence of whisky. The party proved to be a printer employed on one of the morning papers. He sobored off in jail last night. This week he will lift head to pay the customary $3 and trimmings.

For Supervisor.
Martin P. Murphy to-day announced as a candidate for supervisor. Mr. Murphy is an old resident of Decatur, and a man among us has a better knowledge of public affairs, or is better qualified to attend to them. He would bring to the discharge of his duties an intelligent understanding of them and willingness to devote his attention thereto. He would make a first-class supervisor.

This week Mr. Frank L. Wood will improve his property at the corner of Wood and South Main streets. He will have a new brick walk laid on both sides of the corner, and erect a new fence. "The interior of the brick dwelling has been re-arranged and improved and Mr. Wood and family will occupy it in future.

THE news from Sangamon county, received in Decatur Sunday, that General Oglesby had captured 60 out of the 90 delegates, caused much pleasure among Uncle Dick's many friends, some of whom predicted that he would doubtless be nominated at Peoria by acclamation. It looks that way.

Want a General Market.
The Knights of Labor organization at Bloomington petition the council of that city to call a special election that the people might have an opportunity to vote on the proposition to establish a general market in the town. After general discussion the petition was referred to the public improvement committee. Some people think Decatur ought to have a general market house. The question has been quietly agitated for some months.

A HEAVY spring wagon became a total wreck on East Eldorado street, nearly in front of Stapp's Chapel, last week. The forward axle-tree was broken in the center. The wagon remained in the street over Sunday.

JUROR PHILLIPS has refused to grant John Leigh a new trial. The jury gave Leigh five years in the penitentiary. Gov. Palmer will take the case to the Supreme Court.

The Decatur township Republican primaries will be held Thursday evening. Let every Republican voter in each precinct be on hand only.

Mrs. D. S. Shillabarger and Mrs. A. W. Conklin are among the Decatur people attending the Harmon revival at St. Louis, which is now in its ninth week, with over 1200 conversions recorded.

THE interesting letter from Florida, which appears in to-day's paper, is from a former resident of Decatur, and will be found well worth perusing.

LOOK!
By furnishing satisfactory recommendations you can procure the agency in your neighborhood for a new patented article. Will sell at sight to every merchant in your city. Good commission. For further information address

HAMILTON & KAY,
Two Rivers, Wis.

MARCH 24-22

GRIMLEY DUNSTON says he is going to move, but he will not begin to worry much about it until his new dwelling on West William street is finished ready for occupancy.

THE loveliest lace curtains, rugs, mats and most stylish carpets you ever saw on sale at Abel & Locke's old reliable establishment.

The Daily Republican.

Funeral of the late Mrs. C. E. Brown Sunday Evening.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mollie A. Brown, wife of Mr. Charles H. Brown, who died in Chicago on Thursday morning in the 34th year of her age, took place from the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening. The sad services were very largely attended, it being impossible for any except the relatives who arrived at the church from the residence in carriages to find seating accommodation, and 20 or more people had to remain seated in the carriages during the ceremony. The church about the altar was tastefully adorned with rich floral offerings in profusion, the gift of friends of the deceased. They embraced calla lilies and ferns, and numerous hot-house flowers in vases, which were draped in mourning; also a large cross made of lilies and hyacinths; a large inverted anchor of white flowers; a floral spray of immense size; a large, white star of hope resting on a pedestal; and a mammoth basket of white flowers. Deceased was a consistent member of the church, and a touching tribute to her life and character was delivered by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Prentiss. Appropriate music for the sad occasion was furnished by the choir which numbered 12 voices. The remains were interred in Greenwood cemetery in the presence of a great throng of sympathizing friends of the bereaved young husband and motherless children. The pall-bearers were Messrs. R. P. Lytle, O. Z. Groome, O. B. Gorin, Albert Barnes, J. A. Mullis, R. S. Bolton, K. Harwood and O. E. Curtis.

Somehow Mixed.
Thomas Lee, who is a candidate for alderman in the fifth ward, says he is going to see fair play if it costs him the use of his other foot. He doesn't know why that special meeting was held Friday night except in the interest of John Gogarty. Mr. Lee was on hand in person that night, and he claims the honor of having thwarted the purpose of the gathering, which he insists was to nominate Gogarty. The meeting adjourned to meet again Tuesday evening of this week, and he will endeavor to be on hand again to note the drift of the wind and lift up his voice in opposition to any irregular action. Tom says he is on the track to stay and hopes to go into the council with a big vote and flying colors.

More Tax Reports.
Oakley township--J. B. Lichtenberger collector. Amount assessed, $5,553.77; collected, $2,201.51; delinquent, $2,151.22.
Pleasant View--P. M. Scherling collector. Amount assessed, $10,573.80; collected, $7,742.36; delinquent, $2,831.44.
Long Creek--W. M. Davis collector. Amount assessed, $9,107.75; collected, $6,701.21; delinquent, $2,406.54.

SUNDAY afternoon pedestrians were somewhat amused on noticing a man sound asleep and snoring on the stone steps leading to the south entrance to the First M. E. church. He was aroused by Marshall Mason, who found that he was under the influence of whisky. The party proved to be a printer employed on one of the morning papers. He sobored off in jail last night. This week he will lift head to pay the customary $3 and trimmings.

For Supervisor.
Martin P. Murphy to-day announced as a candidate for supervisor. Mr. Murphy is an old resident of Decatur, and a man among us has a better knowledge of public affairs, or is better qualified to attend to them. He would bring to the discharge of his duties an intelligent understanding of them and willingness to devote his attention thereto. He would make a first-class supervisor.

This week Mr. Frank L. Wood will improve his property at the corner of Wood and South Main streets. He will have a new brick walk laid on both sides of the corner, and erect a new fence. "The interior of the brick dwelling has been re-arranged and improved and Mr. Wood and family will occupy it in future.

THE news from Sangamon county, received in Decatur Sunday, that General Oglesby had captured 60 out of the 90 delegates, caused much pleasure among Uncle Dick's many friends, some of whom predicted that he would doubtless be nominated at Peoria by acclamation. It looks that way.

Want a General Market.
The Knights of Labor organization at Bloomington petition the council of that city to call a special election that the people might have an opportunity to vote on the proposition to establish a general market in the town. After general discussion the petition was referred to the public improvement committee. Some people think Decatur ought to have a general market house. The question has been quietly agitated for some months.

A HEAVY spring wagon became a total wreck on East Eldorado street, nearly in front of Stapp's Chapel, last week. The forward axle-tree was broken in the center. The wagon remained in the street over Sunday.

JUROR PHILLIPS has refused to grant John Leigh a new trial. The jury gave Leigh five years in the penitentiary. Gov. Palmer will take the case to the Supreme Court.

The Decatur township Republican primaries will be held Thursday evening. Let every Republican voter in each precinct be on hand only.

Mrs. D. S. Shillabarger and Mrs. A. W. Conklin are among the Decatur people attending the Harmon revival at St. Louis, which is now in its ninth week, with over 1200 conversions recorded.

THE interesting letter from Florida, which appears in to-day's paper, is from a former resident of Decatur, and will be found well worth perusing.

LOOK!
By furnishing satisfactory recommendations you can procure the agency in your neighborhood for a new patented article. Will sell at sight to every merchant in your city. Good commission. For further information address

HAMILTON & KAY,
Two Rivers, Wis.

MARCH 24-22

GRIMLEY DUNSTON says he is going to move, but he will not begin to worry much about it until his new dwelling on West William street is finished ready for occupancy.

THE loveliest lace curtains, rugs, mats and most stylish carpets you ever saw on sale at Abel & Locke's old reliable establishment.

The Daily Republican.

Funeral of the late Mrs. C. E. Brown Sunday Evening.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mollie A. Brown, wife of Mr. Charles H. Brown, who died in Chicago on Thursday morning in the 34th year of her age, took place from the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening. The sad services were very largely attended, it being impossible for any except the relatives who arrived at the church from the residence in carriages to find seating accommodation, and 20 or more people had to remain seated in the carriages during the ceremony. The church about the altar was tastefully adorned with rich floral offerings in profusion, the gift of friends of the deceased. They embraced calla lilies and ferns, and numerous hot-house flowers in vases, which were draped in mourning; also a large cross made of lilies and hyacinths; a large inverted anchor of white flowers; a floral spray of immense size; a large, white star of hope resting on a pedestal; and a mammoth basket of white flowers. Deceased was a consistent member of the church, and a touching tribute to her life and character was delivered by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Prentiss. Appropriate music for the sad occasion was furnished by the choir which numbered 12 voices. The remains were interred in Greenwood cemetery in the presence of a great throng of sympathizing friends of the bereaved young husband and motherless children. The pall-bearers were Messrs. R. P. Lytle, O. Z. Groome, O. B. Gorin, Albert Barnes, J. A. Mullis, R. S. Bolton, K. Harwood and O. E. Curtis.

Somehow Mixed.
Thomas Lee, who is a candidate for alderman in the fifth ward, says he is going to see fair play if it costs him the use of his other foot. He doesn't know why that special meeting was held Friday night except in the interest of John Gogarty. Mr. Lee was on hand in person that night, and he claims the honor of having thwarted the purpose of the gathering, which he insists was to nominate Gogarty. The meeting adjourned to meet again Tuesday evening of this week, and he will endeavor to be on hand again to note the drift of the wind and lift up his voice in opposition to any irregular action. Tom says he is on the track to stay and hopes to go into the council with a big vote and flying colors.

More Tax Reports.
Oakley township--J. B. Lichtenberger collector. Amount assessed, $5,553.77; collected, $2,201.51; delinquent, $2,151.22.
Pleasant View--P. M. Scherling collector. Amount assessed, $10,573.80; collected, $7,742.36; delinquent, $2,831.44.
Long Creek--W. M. Davis collector. Amount assessed, $9,107.75; collected, $6,701.21; delinquent, $2,406.54.

SUNDAY afternoon pedestrians were somewhat amused on noticing a man sound asleep and snoring on the stone steps leading to the south entrance to the First M. E. church. He was aroused by Marshall Mason, who found that he was under the influence of whisky. The party proved to be a printer employed on one of the morning papers. He sobored off in jail last night. This week he will lift head to pay the customary $3 and trimmings.

For Supervisor.
Martin P. Murphy to-day announced as a candidate for supervisor. Mr. Murphy is an old resident of Decatur, and a man among us has a better knowledge of public affairs, or is better qualified to attend to them. He would bring to the discharge of his duties an intelligent understanding of them and willingness to devote his attention thereto. He would make a first-class supervisor.

This week Mr. Frank L. Wood will improve his property at the corner of Wood and South Main streets. He will have a new brick walk laid on both sides of the corner, and erect a new fence. "The interior of the brick dwelling has been re-arranged and improved and Mr. Wood and family will occupy it in future.

THE news from Sangamon county, received in Decatur Sunday, that General Oglesby had captured 60 out of the 90 delegates, caused much pleasure among Uncle Dick's many friends, some of whom predicted that he would doubtless be nominated at Peoria by acclamation. It looks that way.

Want a General Market.
The Knights of Labor organization at Bloomington petition the council of that city to call a special election that the people might have an opportunity to vote on the proposition to establish a general market in the town. After general discussion the petition was referred to the public improvement committee. Some people think Decatur ought to have a general market house. The question has been quietly agitated for some months.

A HEAVY spring wagon became a total wreck on East Eldorado street, nearly in front of Stapp's Chapel, last week. The forward axle-tree was broken in the center. The wagon remained in the street over Sunday.

JUROR PHILLIPS has refused to grant John Leigh a new trial. The jury gave Leigh five years in the penitentiary. Gov. Palmer will take the case to the Supreme Court.

The Decatur township Republican primaries will be held Thursday evening. Let every Republican voter in each precinct be on hand only.

Mrs. D. S. Shillabarger and Mrs. A. W. Conklin are among the Decatur people attending the Harmon revival at St. Louis, which is now in its ninth week, with over 1200 conversions recorded.

THE interesting letter from Florida, which appears in to-day's paper, is from a former resident of Decatur, and will be found well worth perusing.

LOOK!
By furnishing satisfactory recommendations you can procure the agency in your neighborhood for a new patented article. Will sell at sight to every merchant in your city. Good commission. For further information address

HAMILTON & KAY,
Two Rivers, Wis.

MARCH 24-22

GRIMLEY DUNSTON says he is going to move, but he will not begin to worry much about it until his new dwelling on West William street is finished ready for occupancy.

THE loveliest lace curtains, rugs, mats and most stylish carpets you ever saw on sale at Abel & Locke's old reliable establishment.

The Daily Republican.

Funeral of the late Mrs. C. E. Brown Sunday Evening.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mollie A. Brown, wife of Mr. Charles H. Brown, who died in Chicago on Thursday morning in the 34th year of her age, took place from the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening. The sad services were very largely attended, it being impossible for any except the relatives who arrived at the church from the residence in carriages to find seating accommodation, and 20 or more people had to remain seated in the carriages during the ceremony. The church about the altar was tastefully adorned with rich floral offerings in profusion, the gift of friends of the deceased. They embraced calla lilies and ferns, and numerous hot-house flowers in vases, which were draped in mourning; also a large cross made of lilies and hyacinths; a large inverted anchor of white flowers; a floral spray of immense size; a large, white star of hope resting on a pedestal; and a mammoth basket of white flowers. Deceased was a consistent member of the church, and a touching tribute to her life and character was delivered by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Prentiss. Appropriate music for the sad occasion was furnished by the choir which numbered 12 voices. The remains were interred in Greenwood cemetery in the presence of a great throng of sympathizing friends of the bereaved young husband and motherless children. The pall-bearers were Messrs. R. P. Lytle, O. Z. Groome, O. B. Gorin, Albert Barnes, J. A. Mullis, R. S. Bolton, K. Harwood and O. E. Curtis.

Somehow Mixed.
Thomas Lee, who is a candidate for alderman in the fifth ward, says he is going to see fair play if it costs him the use of his other foot. He doesn't know why that special meeting was held Friday night except in the interest of John Gogarty. Mr. Lee was on hand in person that night, and he claims the honor of having thwarted the purpose of the gathering, which he insists was to nominate Gogarty. The meeting adjourned to meet again Tuesday evening of this week, and he will endeavor to be on hand again to note the drift of the wind and lift up his voice in opposition to any irregular action. Tom says he is on the track to stay and hopes to go into the council with a big vote and flying colors.

More Tax Reports.
Oakley township--J. B. Lichtenberger collector. Amount assessed, $5,553.77; collected, $2,201.51; delinquent, $2,151.22.
Pleasant View--P. M. Scherling collector. Amount assessed, $10,573.80; collected, $7,742.36; delinquent, $2,831.44.
Long Creek--W. M. Davis collector. Amount assessed, $9,107.75; collected, $6,701.21; delinquent, $2,406.54.

SUNDAY afternoon pedestrians were somewhat amused on noticing a man sound asleep and snoring on the stone steps leading to the south entrance to the First M. E. church. He was aroused by Marshall Mason, who found that he was under the influence of whisky. The party proved to be a printer employed on one of the morning papers. He sobored off in jail last night. This week he will lift head to pay the customary $3 and trimmings.

For Supervisor.
Martin P. Murphy to-day announced as a candidate for supervisor. Mr. Murphy is an old resident of Decatur, and a man among us has a better knowledge of public affairs, or is better qualified to attend to them. He would bring to the discharge of his duties an intelligent understanding of them and willingness to devote his attention thereto. He would make a first-class supervisor.

This week Mr. Frank L. Wood will improve his property at the corner of Wood and South Main streets. He will have a new brick walk laid on both sides of the corner, and erect a new fence. "The interior of the brick dwelling has been re-arranged and improved and Mr. Wood and family will occupy it in future.

THE news from Sangamon county, received in Decatur Sunday, that General Oglesby had captured 60 out of the 90 delegates, caused much pleasure among Uncle Dick's many friends, some of whom predicted that he would doubtless be nominated at Peoria by acclamation. It looks that way.

Want a General Market.
The Knights of Labor organization at Bloomington petition the council of that city to call a special election that the people might have an opportunity to vote on the proposition to establish a general market in the town. After general discussion the petition was referred to the public improvement committee. Some people think Decatur ought to have a general market house. The question has been quietly agitated for some months.

A HEAVY spring wagon became a total wreck on East Eldorado street, nearly in front of Stapp's Chapel, last week. The forward axle-tree was broken in the center. The wagon remained in the street over Sunday.

JUROR PHILLIPS has refused to grant John Leigh a new trial. The jury gave Leigh five years in the penitentiary. Gov. Palmer will take the case to the Supreme Court.

The Decatur township Republican primaries will be held Thursday evening. Let every Republican voter in each precinct be on hand only.

Mrs. D. S. Shillabarger and Mrs. A. W. Conklin are among the Decatur people attending the Harmon revival at St. Louis, which is now in its ninth week, with over 1200 conversions recorded.

THE interesting letter from Florida, which appears in to-day's paper, is from a former resident of Decatur, and will be found well worth perusing.

LOOK!
By furnishing satisfactory recommendations you can procure the agency in your neighborhood for a new patented article. Will sell at sight to every merchant in your city. Good commission. For further information address

HAMILTON & KAY,
Two Rivers, Wis.

MARCH 24-22

GRIMLEY DUNSTON says he is going to move, but he will not begin to worry much about it until his new dwelling on West William street is finished ready for occupancy.

THE loveliest lace curtains, rugs, mats and most stylish carpets you ever saw on sale at Abel & Locke's old reliable establishment.

The Daily Republican.

Funeral of the late Mrs. C. E. Brown Sunday Evening.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mollie A. Brown, wife of Mr. Charles H. Brown, who died in Chicago on Thursday morning in the 34th year of her age, took place from the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening. The sad services were very largely attended, it being impossible for any except the relatives who arrived at the church from the residence in carriages to find seating accommodation, and 20 or more people had to remain seated in the carriages during the ceremony. The church about the altar was tastefully adorned with rich floral offerings in profusion, the gift of friends of the deceased. They embraced calla lilies and ferns, and numerous hot-house flowers in vases, which were draped in mourning; also a large cross made of lilies and hyacinths; a large inverted anchor of white flowers; a floral spray of immense size; a large, white star of hope resting on a pedestal; and a mammoth basket of white flowers. Deceased was a consistent member of the church, and a touching tribute to her life and character was delivered by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Prentiss. Appropriate music for the sad occasion was furnished by the choir which numbered 12 voices. The remains were interred in Greenwood cemetery in the presence of a great throng of sympathizing friends of the bereaved young husband and motherless children. The pall-bearers were Messrs. R. P. Lytle, O. Z. Groome, O. B. Gorin, Albert Barnes, J. A. Mullis, R. S. Bolton, K. Harwood and O. E. Curtis.

Somehow Mixed.
Thomas Lee, who is a candidate for alderman in the fifth ward, says he is going to see fair play if it costs him the use of his other foot. He doesn't know why that special meeting was held Friday night except in the interest of John Gogarty. Mr. Lee was on hand in person that night, and he claims the honor of having thwarted the purpose of the gathering, which he insists was to nominate Gogarty. The meeting adjourned to meet again Tuesday evening of this week, and he will endeavor to be on hand again to note the drift of the wind and lift up his voice in opposition to any irregular action. Tom says he is on the track to stay and hopes to go into the council with a big vote and flying colors.

More Tax Reports.
Oakley township--J. B. Lichtenberger collector. Amount assessed, $5,553.77; collected, $2,201.51; delinquent, $2,151.22.
Pleasant View--P. M. Scherling collector. Amount assessed, $10,573.80; collected, $7,742.36; delinquent, $2,831.44.
Long Creek--W. M. Davis collector. Amount assessed, $9,107.75; collected, $6,701.21; delinquent, $2,406.54.

SUNDAY afternoon pedestrians were somewhat amused on noticing a man sound asleep and snoring on the stone steps leading to the south entrance to the First M. E. church. He was aroused by Marshall Mason, who found that he was under the influence of whisky. The party proved to be a printer employed on one of the morning papers. He sobored off in jail last night. This week he will lift head to pay the customary $3 and trimmings.

For Supervisor.
Martin P. Murphy to-day announced as a candidate for supervisor. Mr. Murphy is an old resident of Decatur, and a man among us has a better knowledge of public affairs, or is better qualified to attend to them. He would bring to the discharge of his duties an intelligent understanding of them and willingness to devote his attention thereto. He would make a first-class supervisor.

This week Mr. Frank L. Wood will improve his property at the corner of Wood and South Main streets. He will have a new brick walk laid on both sides of the corner, and erect a new fence. "The interior of the brick dwelling has been re-arranged and improved and Mr. Wood and family will occupy it in future.

THE news from Sangamon county, received in Decatur Sunday, that General Oglesby had captured 60 out of the 90 delegates, caused much pleasure among Uncle Dick's many friends, some of whom predicted that he would doubtless be nominated at Peoria by acclamation. It looks that way.

Want a General Market.
The Knights of Labor organization at Bloomington petition the council of that city to call a special election that the people might have an opportunity to vote on the proposition to establish a general market in the town. After general discussion the petition was referred to the public improvement committee. Some people think Decatur ought to have a general market house. The question has been quietly agitated for some months.

A HEAVY spring wagon became a total wreck on East Eldorado street, nearly in front of Stapp's Chapel, last week. The forward axle-tree was broken in the center. The wagon remained in the street over Sunday.

JUROR PHILLIPS has refused to grant John Leigh a new trial. The jury gave Leigh five years in the penitentiary. Gov. Palmer will take the case to the Supreme Court.

The Decatur township Republican primaries will be held Thursday evening. Let every Republican voter in each precinct be on hand only.

Mrs. D. S. Shillabarger and Mrs. A. W. Conklin are among the Decatur people attending the Harmon revival at St. Louis, which is now in its ninth week, with over 1200 conversions recorded.

THE interesting letter from Florida, which appears in to-day's paper, is from a former resident of Decatur, and will be found well worth perusing.

LOOK!
By furnishing satisfactory recommendations you can procure the agency in your neighborhood for a new patented article. Will sell at sight to every merchant in your city. Good commission. For further information address

HAMILTON & KAY,
Two Rivers, Wis.

MARCH 24-22

GRIMLEY DUNSTON says he is going to move, but he will not begin to worry much about it until his new dwelling on West William street is finished ready for occupancy.

THE loveliest lace curtains, rugs, mats and most stylish carpets you ever saw on sale at Abel & Locke's old reliable establishment.

The Daily Republican.

Funeral of the late Mrs. C. E. Brown Sunday Evening.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mollie A. Brown, wife of Mr. Charles H. Brown, who died in Chicago on Thursday morning in the 34th year of her age, took place from the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening. The sad services were very largely attended, it being impossible for any except the relatives who arrived at the church from the residence in carriages to find seating accommodation, and 20 or more people had to remain seated in the carriages during the ceremony. The church about the altar was tastefully adorned with rich floral offerings in profusion, the gift of friends of the deceased. They embraced calla lilies and ferns, and numerous hot-house flowers in vases, which were draped in mourning; also a large cross made of lilies and hyacinths; a large inverted anchor of white flowers; a floral spray of immense size; a large, white star of hope resting on a pedestal; and a mammoth basket of white

N. LAUX, Proprietor,
Main St., corner of West, Decatur, Ia.
For Rent, a large, well furnished house.
Call on Proprietor. Carriage furnished all hours at a low rate. -
P. 1981-10-24

Redemption Notice.
Thomas Wilson, or whom it may concern, are hereby notified that at a sale of the land and town lots, for said county and taxes, made in pursuance of law, in the city of Decatur, Iowa, on the 1st day of June, A. D. 1898, for the taxes due for the year 1897, I purchased the following described tract of land, to-wit: One-fourth of the east side of lot 4, dv. 6, in the 1st of the northeast quarter of section
16 (northwest quarter) north range
10 east, town in the name of Thomas Wilson, in said county and State of Iowa, from said sale will expire on the 1st day of June, A. D. 1899.

JOHN N. ZILLES,
Recorder.

Be at work in your own town. Terms 10 cents. Address E. C. Smith, 100 and 102 Main St., Decatur, Iowa.